

Washington Irving, 1783-1859

The Ninth Annual CELEBRATING IRVING The City and The Man

Special Exhibits and Online Activities

Virtual City Exploring

Throughout April

Explore the city of Irving virtually using the Celebrating Irving: The City, a Google map found at bit.ly/1PxPKbA.

Google Hangout

Throughout April

Students in various classrooms across Irving will virtually meet artist/illustrator Will Moses. The great-grandson of Grandma Moses will visit with the students while at the Irving Arts Center where his artwork is on display.

Will Moses: American Folk Artist

April 2 through June 26, Irving Arts Center, 3333 N. MacArthur Blvd.

This exhibition of paintings by Will Moses, great-grandson of legendary folk artist, Grandma Moses, is presented in partnership with “Celebrating Irving” and includes original illustrations from Moses’ books, The Legend of Sleepy Hollow and Rip Van Winkle.

Family Funday: Celebrate Folk Art

Sunday, April 17, 2 to 4 p.m., Irving Arts Center, 3333 N. MacArthur Blvd.

Make and take an art project inspired by the Will Moses exhibition. All supplies are provided for this free program. For more information, visit www.irvingartscenter.com.

Betty Jean Ramsey Huffman Folk Art Exhibits

March 27 through April 29, Jaycee Center for the Arts, 1975 Puritan Drive

March 27 through May 28, West Irving Library, 4444 W. Rochelle Road

Community-created folk art will be displayed for public viewing. For information on submitting your folk art by March 26, contact the Irving Heritage Society at (972) 252-3838, visit irvingartassociation.org, or email iaaexhibits@gmail.com.

Additional special exhibits are on display throughout April at the Valley Ranch Library, the Heritage Senior Center, and the offices of the Irving Independent School District.

CELEBRATING IRVING

The City and The Man

Programs and Trivia Contests

Family Film Matinee - The Legend of Sleepy Hollow

Saturday, April 2, 2 p.m., Valley Ranch Library, 401 Cimarron Trail

Saturday, April 16, 2 p.m., East Branch Library, 440 S. Nursery Road

Families are invited to a screening of the animated Disney classic based on Washington Irving's famous story.

A Conversation with Will Moses

Sunday, April 3, 4 p.m., Irving Arts Center, 3333 N. MacArthur Blvd.

Artist and author/illustrator Will Moses will share the background and artistry of his folk art paintings and his books for children with host, Cathy Whiteman.

Will Moses Meets Irving

Monday, April 4, 4 p.m., West Irving Library, 4444 W. Rochelle Road

Mr. Moses will talk informally with the audience about his art. Books will be available for purchase and signing.

Betty Jean Ramsey Huffman Folk Art Exhibit Reception

Monday, April 4, 7 p.m., Jaycee Center for the Arts, 1975 Puritan Drive

Join Will Moses for a reception honoring the artists of this community folk art exhibit.

Irving Trivia - The City and The Man (preliminary rounds)

Saturday, April 16, 10 a.m., West Irving Library, 4444 W. Rochelle Road

For information on forming a team, or to get a team application, call the Irving Heritage Society at (972) 252-3838.

The Family Legacy of Art

Monday, April 18, 7 p.m., National Scouting Museum, 1329 W. Walnut Hill Lane

This program is presented by Professor Brett Dyer of North Lake College. Free tours of the Norman Rockwell Gallery will be offered prior to the program.

Irving Trivia - The City and The Man (final rounds)

Saturday, April 30, 10 a.m., Valley Ranch Library, 401 Cimarron Trail

Come and cheer for your favorite team.

ADMISSION TO ALL EVENTS IS FREE!

Funded in part by the City of Irving through the
Irving Arts Board

"Celebrating Irving: The City and the Man" is funded in part by the City of Irving through the Irving Arts Board, and by a generous gift honoring Betty Jean Ramsey Huffman. This program was made possible in part with a grant from Humanities Texas, the state affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities.